

Alan Scott Williams

October 11, 1949 - September 8, 2017

Alan Scott Williams Sr. age 67 of Sandy Hook, Kentucky passed away peacefully Friday, September 08, 2017 at his residence after a short illness.

He was twice widowed, first wife Mary Frances Williams (1990) and Donna Williams (2010), both the loves of his life. Son of John Edward Williams (deceased 2001) and survived by mother Ida Hazel Williams, his three children, Alan Scott Williams Jr., Michelle Williams-Finch and Kerry Ray Williams, 6 grandchildren-Nathan, Asher, Macey, Felice, Eric, Baron, sister Wanda Hughes, brother Timothy Williams, as well as many extended family members.

First and foremost, Alan was a loving father and husband. Devastated after the loss of two wives he chose to focus on the simpler things in life. He served in the Army as a Staff Sergeant MP during the Vietnam War and for the Pentagon Joint Chief of Staff. He was a longstanding Kentucky Colonel and held a career as a skilled steel and concrete fabricator. He loved nothing more than playing his guitar and having long, in-depth conversations with his loved ones. He was a one of kind individual and embraced the values of truth and unconditional love. He had super hero strength amongst adversity and lived by the motto that things are what they are.

The family will celebrate his life with a private ceremony

In lieu of flowers, the family request you simply splurge yourself, do something good, donate to your favorite charity, play some music, eat something you shouldn't, take a long walk, and above all love unconditionally as this is what he would want.

Waddell & Whitt Funeral Home in charge.
