An Angel gained her wings, she no longer suffers the troubles of this world. She is not just walking, running and playing, she has no gravity, so she is flying with the Angels making beautiful art work in the clouds. Just look up and see her gorgeous talent being displayed in the greatest museum in the world, God's great universe. Greater than the highest museum in the world. No mourning, no crying, rejoicing with Jesus.

*I know and can't imagine the great void this has left in your life
A very special Angel, too beautiful for the worries of this world.
Please dear Lord comfort this family beyond comprehension of this world. Help them to see all the art work of beautiful Allison that you are allowing her to enjoy.*

Love and prayers. Arianna if you need us, we are in the Book call or stop by “ Allison was such a sweet girl & a light in our family. I'll never forget the first time I saw her right after she was born, or the first time I held her. From the moment she first met her cousin Violet, they instantly bonded. Allison made sure to hug Violet every day at school during lunch & that meant the world to Violet, she came home and told us they'd hugged every single day. Violet looked forward to it & says she will surely miss those hugs. Allison you are so deeply loved & already we miss you terribly. I know you are safe, happy, and healthy in the arms of Jesus now and we have the hope of seeing you again one day. I love you with all my heart sweet girl 💜

“ My sweet chubby cheek baby girl, I am going to miss you! Your sweet, quirky, smile, and quick wit are things I will miss so. There aren't enough words to describe what a one of a kind, beautiful young lady you are. Give Grandpap a hug and kiss for me and I will see you one day again.
