“ Brooks was always a gem and it was my honor to know her. Thank you for allowing me to be a part of her life and caring for her. She sure knew how to make each day brighter. This world was such a better place with her in it. I am so very sorry for your loss. Imagine how much sweeter and brighter Heaven must be now. Love, prayers and hugs to you all.

“ Brooks, you always made me smile. You always remembered me and my aunt's, and we will always remember you. Your kindness and smile always stoodout, since I was a child to being your nurse. You always filled our heart's with such warmth and joy just being in your presence. Now you may enjoy the same in the company of the heavenly father.
