“ I'll never forget the love we share the kids we've made all the laughs I love it all. You were always someone I could count on for everything when I was sad you picked me up when I was mad you made a stupid joke to make me laugh so I couldn't be mad any longer! When I first met you I just thought you were some crazy man who didn't know what he wanted in life and I was right but I got to know you and never thought we'd fall in love and be together for the rest of our life's. You have brought so much joy to my life that now I am so lost without you. I depend on you for everything and know that if I'm upset I can talk to you and you will be there to listen and you always said "I'm your best friend that's what I'm here for" your the most amazing man I've ever met and just know that no one will ever replace you no one will ever love me the way you love me and no one will be daddy to our kids! We love you so much chris and miss you terribly! I can't wait to be next to you in heaven walking around making everyone jealous and being who we are!

“ Chris was a good friend of mine. He always had a joke to tell or do something silly just to brighten someone's day. We shared lots of laughs and even some tears. I just cannot believe this is possible. I know he's not blood, but I always considered him family no matter where he was. My sincerest condolences go out to you Katie and those babies, along with Gina and Eddie and the rest of his family and friends. He had so many people who loved him across the entire country ❤️ Fly High Chris. Watch over us until we meet again. ❤️
