“ It was back in 1995 and I was going to Ashland community college and my mom had called mary jo and cliff and told them who I was and to look after me over there if I needed anything, but in the winter time Mary jo would have cliff to come over to the college to make sure I got there safely and if I needed a place to stay to come on over there that they had me a room fixed up and I appreciate everything that they both did for me

“ My Uncle Cliff was such a good man. Whenever I think of him, I see him either smiling or dancing or both. Boy was he a dancer!! I remember watching my older sister, Vicki, dance the jitter bug with him. It was thrilling to watch him!! Whenever you were around him and Aunt Jo you could just feel the love between them!! It was such a beautiful thing! My heart goes out to Aunt Jo and my cousin Melody - two beautiful loving ladies!!

“ I can remember when I was little we would go to your house on Alberta in Dayton, OH and Uncle Cliff would try to teach me to dance. One dance in particular was the jitter bug (I think that's what it was called). Had fun watching mom and dad and Aunt Jo and Uncle Cliff playing cards. Many child hood memories of Uncle Cliff.
