“ Clyde and I grew up together and were first cousins. We were very close. He was a loving, giving person and never complained about anything. I will never forget when I first moved to Ashland , started laying brick and needed scaffold boards. Clyde told me to cut some trees off his land to make some. I didn't , but I really appreciated it. We will miss him beyond words. We hope to meet him in Heaven someday.

Our deepest sympathy to Sandra and family. With Love and Prayers, J.D. and Doris Lewis

“ Sandra, Clyde is resting now and I hope you can feel some peace in knowing this. I'm going to miss him. I remember when Tony was born, I believe I was about 13 and Clyde told me what you all had named him, Tony Randall, and I told Clyde he should change it to Kathy Clyde and he just laughed at me. He always liked a joke. Kathy Lewis
