“ When I first moved to Ohio my dad would drive up almost twice a month just to babysit Olivia. Best dad ever. I can never remember him every losing his patience and yelling at us, once my oldest daughter snuck in a pet ferret only to loose it in the house, did he get mad? Nope just locked it in the shower and let my Amber search high and low for it until she fussed up and told!haha He and Nana and I loved growing our gardens and canning vegetables together. He was our world i will forever be grateful for the childhood he gave us, and my children. Moving home raising my children on this farm was a blessing all our animals, the memories we made together. Thank you papaw

I have fun memories of my cousin, "Little Melvin" back when we were so young and he was still living in Ohio. Uncle Mart & Aunt Jaley (my own middle name, after her) would come to visit sometimes and us kids would all head to the barn to jump onto the hay from the high beams and laugh SO hard at how fun that was. It was always good to see him again at reunions, etc. It's a loss, knowing he's gone but we keep the faith at these times, that God will make everything all right again. Rest In Peace, "Little Melvin!" Cousin Esta
