“ she was the best mother anyone could have ever had, she always put everyone before herself expecting nothing in return, at supper time her family was the first to get their plates filled, then she would eat, never did she see a stranger and always willing to help others in anyway that she could, she enjoyed the simple things in life like going to church or singing christain songs, or fishing with her husband, or just being amother to her kids, and no she wasnt perfect but she was a mother and a friend to all that knew her, and i know this becouse i was blessed to get to call her mom.
