

Dora Faye White Fields

July 25, 1925 - October 15, 2019

Dora 'Faye' White Fields, 90, of Sandy Hook, Kentucky passed away on October 15, 2019 at Grayson, Kentucky.

She was born on July 24, 1929 in Culver, Kentucky, a daughter of the late Francis Marion and Flora Belle Green White. The family farm on Green Branch was home to her and nine siblings. After graduating from Sandy Hook High School in 1948, she taught in a one-room schoolhouse on Sinking in Elliott County and later at a Normal School in Greenup County, Kentucky. Faye married the late Derrel Fields on December 23, 1950 and later became an Army wife while he served in Germany. They bought a farm in Stephens, Kentucky where they raised four sons. She was often spotted on her little red tractor working on the farm. Faye enjoyed gardening, reading, crocheting, and bird watching. A favorite past time was viewing her world from the front porch swing. With a personality that would light up the room, her quick wit and mischievous laughter will be remembered by all who knew her. As a person of strong faith, Wednesday afternoon bible study and Sunday morning meetings were highlights of her week. One of her favorite events was Convention in the summer with her church family.

She is survived by four sons, Dana Lee (Debbie) Fields of Grayson, Kentucky; David Ray (Sylvia) Fields of Falkville, Alabama; Roy Allen (Suzie) Fields of Flatwoods, Kentucky; and Randall Derrel (Melissa) Fields of Flatwoods, Kentucky; 13 Grandchildren: Patrick Fields, Aaron Fields, Jeffrey Fields, Jeremy Fields, Justin Fields, Melissa Fields Mason, Anthony Fields, Lori Fields Martin, Kyle Fields, Clairissa Fields, Jaythen Fields, Mackenzie Fields, and Rosie Fields; 15 Great Grandchildren: Sophia, Madalyn, Maci, Landen, Adalyn, Audrina, Alana, Emerson, Ethan, Brayden, Jacey, Zoey, Jaxon, Landon, and Rhyder.

In addition, she is survived by two sisters, her twin, Elizabeth Maye Smith of Perryville, Kentucky; and Nellie Fields of Flemingsburg, Kentucky. She was preceded in death by four brothers, Lowell White, Darrell White, Laurie White, and Coleman White; and three sisters, Joy Hoffman, Ferl Barker, and Pauline Ison.

Funeral services will be held on Friday, October 18th, 2019 at 1:00 p.m. at Whitt and Sons Funeral Chapel with Bill Denk and Bobby Sylvia officiating.

Burial will follow in Elliott County Memory Gardens in Sandy Hook, KY.

Her grandsons will serve as pallbearers: Patrick Fields, Aaron Fields, Jeffrey Fields, Justin Fields, Jeremy Fields, Anthony Fields, Kyle Fields, and Jaythen Fields.

Friends may visit from 11:00 a.m. until the service hour at Whitt & Sons.

“ Faye was one of the hardest working women I have ever known. She always had a smile and I'll never forget her giggle! I remember times she would hug me and pick me up off the ground. She was beautiful. I loved her and will miss her.

Mamaw Faye ... You were the perfect little mamaw you always had a smile on your face and when you saw us coming it just got bigger... No matter what you were doing you always stopped to spend time with us... I remember you telling me that my mom and you got your drivers license at the same time and I was a little girl and was with my mom... She said if she knew I would of grew up and been her daughter-n-law she would of giggled her head off... Faye always loved when I would help myself to her kitchen and cook and do up the dishes... And especially when me and the boys would come help her with farm work... Our boys always loved her home cooking especially her mashed potatoes... We love you mamaw Faye.... RIP
