“ When we moved down here in 1997, she made me feel like one of her kids. I was a senior in high school and I'd meet the bus at her house. She made me breakfast along with three of her grandkids meeting the bus there too. I'll never forget the food, the singing, the long nights of visiting with laughter and love, the long talks about the Bible, the things she crochet me. I've got memories that are precious to me that I'll hold dear to my heart. She was a friend to all. She loved flowers and I did too. I'll never forget her and the things she taught me. Rest in peace Aunt Evalena.

“ Aunt Evalena was one of my favorite neighbors/ family member. I used to run over across the street to her and uncle Aubreys house. She would make me a snack or have some of their apples from their trees for me. Her and Uncle Aubrey would both tell me the boys would be chasing me for my hair. But she always would welcome me to their house whenever I came over. I'd help make a snack while uncle Aubrey and my Pa would play music. There I played a giant violin type base while everyone else played banjo. Evalena used to love seeing me, my sister, and my nana and pa. She will be dearly missed.
