

Harold B. Young

December 14, 1924 - December 18, 2010

Harold Young, 86, of Webbville, Kentucky went home to be with his lord Saturday morning, December 18, 2010 at Elliott County Nursing and Rehab Center in Sandy Hook, Kentucky. No doubt he was escorted to his Heavenly home by his Guardian Angel, then greeted by all those he loved so very much that had went on before.

Mr. Young was born December 14, 1924 in Lawrence County, Kentucky, a life long resident of what was once known as Houckville, Kentucky (Cherokee) located on Hwy 201 between Blaine and Webbville.

Harold was preceded in death by his wife, Roberta May Young; his parents, David Mayo and Esther Evans Young; an infant brother Homer Carl Young.

He is survived by one son and daughter-in-law, Billy Carson and Ida Mae Young of Webbville, Kentucky; one daughter and son-in-law, Peggy Sue and Ronald Lewis of Isonville, Kentucky; one brother, Paul Young of Webbville, Kentucky; three sisters and brother-in-law, Gaynelle Rogers of Kettering, Ohio, Roberta Rogers Chandler of Grayson, Kentucky; Peggy and Jim Clark of Tollesboro, Kentucky; one grandchild and grandson-in-law, Angela Reanae and Charles Edward Callihan of Olive Hill, Kentucky; several nieces and nephews.

Harold was a self-employed contractor who started out hauling produce back from down south for resale back here at home, then begun "Young Trucking" where he hauled gravel to almost every road or driveway in the Lawrence County area. In the mid 80's he began working for Mountain Enterprise until his retirement in the late 90's. Harold also served his country in Italy, during World War II, in the United States Army. He also served as a member of the Lawrence County Board of Education and was also recognized as a Kentucky Colonel. But, Harold was always quick to let others know that his greatest accomplishment was when he gave his heart to God at the age of 76, when he was able to he loved to go to church. Harold was active in local Democratic political functions, and simply enjoyed being out and about with his many friends. He loved bluegrass music, his Stetson Cowboy hats, Dan Post Cowboy boots, western shirts and a good steak.

All Harold ever wanted was for his children to be happy, healthy and to succeed at whatever they went after. As his daughter I can tell you he loved his kids and always wanted the very best for them.

Funeral services will be held 11:00 a.m. Tuesday, December 21, 2010 at Cherokee Freewill Baptist Church in Webbville, Kentucky with his son-in-law, Ronald Lewis and Pastor David Boggs officiating. Burial will follow in the Kentucky Veterans Cemetery North East will full military graveside rites.

Friends may call after 4:00 p.m. Monday, December 20, 2010 and after 9:00 a.m. Tuesday until the service hour at the Church.

Homer Ramey, Chris Rose, Craig McNeal, Randall McNeal and Edward Borders and Little Gary Rogers will serve as pallbearers.

Online memorials can be made at www.waddellandwhitt.com

Tribute Wall

“ Heavenly Father, please be with the Young family . May none but healing hands come near them and may You guide every thought, every hand involved. Be wit...h them and there family's I ask for minimal pain and quick recovery's. Thank you, Father, for bein###imported-begin##BarryHall###imported-end##

January 01, 1753 at 12:00 AM

“ Peggy, I will keep you and your family in my prayers.##imported-begin##ChrisMiller##imported-end##

January 01, 1753 at 12:00 AM

“ Peggy and Ron, we're so sorry for your loss but is heaven's gain. Our prayers are with you. God Bless and if you need anything just let us know. Love Joyce and George##imported-begin##George and JoyceHolbrook##imported-end##

January 01, 1753 at 12:00 AM

“ Peggy, we are so sorry for your loss. We will keep you and your family in our prayers.##imported-begin##Clavis & EdithDickerson##imported-end##

January 01, 1753 at 12:00 AM