“ My Aunt Fern was not only my aunt, but my friend who shared wonderful stories of the family members we all hold so dear. She prayed for us and with us, sharing God's words of comfort. When my Mom and Dad were so sick last year, she prayed with me on the phone, reminding me that yes, God is still in control. My Dad loved her so much. After he had to go on dialysis, he really enjoyed going to breakfast (biscuits & gravy) on non-dialysis days. We took him many times; I loved the stories he would tell while there. One about Aunt Fern that I really liked was when he told about taking her to school when she had just started. Since he was several years older, he walked with her, both enjoying the sights along the way, until Fern got tired; then Daddy would carry her. That was fine, until winter came and the snows began to fly and temperatures dropped below freezing. During this time, they would stop to rest and get warm at a friend's/relative's home. Everyone thought she was such a cute, little thing. I can still see Daddy's eyes sparkle when he told this. I'm sure she wasn't a bit "spoiled" since she was the only girl, the baby, and had not one...but two older brothers. Aunt Fern will be missed by many, but her work for the Lord will live on forever. As I told Melissa, I can only imagine her reunion in heaven with Mamaw and Papaw Brickey, Uncle John Wayne, and Daddy. Someday we will see them again, in this I truly believe!

*"Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding,
In all thy ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct thy paths."
Proverbs 3:5-6*
