“ I've known Jemma my whole life. She had a heart of gold, and if she considered you a friend you knew you could count on her. When I divorced and left Sandy Hook in the early 80's, we both ended up in Lima, OH. We became friends and even shared an apartment for a while. She fell in love with my son Lee, and helped me to start laughing and enjoying life again. I will never forget her...RIP Jemma, love you!
