“ I met Jimmy on the day of my Aunt Martha's funeral. He was with my Aunt Martha's grand daughter Elizabeth. You could tell that he was there for emotional support for Elizabeth. It was a sad occasion , but I'm thankful Jimmy was there as an emotional support for our family

“ Jimmy has been a great friend of over 30 years. We grew together as friends and brothers over the years. As his pastor for 28 years, I have know the heart of a man that Loves God. He never let the things of this life stop him from believing the word of God. We have run this race together for many years and now that he has out run me, he is waiting for me just across the finish line to continue our friendship for eternity.

God rest your gallant soul Bro. Jimmy. We will meet again soon.

Your Brother Nate
