“ My mother passed away on July the sixth 2014
I loved her deeply; now she's simply gone.
All my life I'd known that I was loved,
I can't believe her love is not somewhere,
So strong it was, so much a part of me.
I feel it in the harsh salt of the sea
And in the stinging sadness of the wind.

*I ride the waves along the rock-strewn shore.
No one watches me with fear and pride.
Now among the stars I am alone.
In her heart I had my only home*

*Weep, weep within me, There's release
In tears, in sorrow, in love that brings such pain.
You live inside of me, so rest in peace.
I know that like a sea you cannot cease
To crash against my heart, again, again.
Weep, weep within me, There's release.*

*From all the cruelty of your short lease,
The unimagined hell of the self-slain.
You live inside of me, so rest in peace.
Weep, weep within me, There's release.*

*In knowing that your love, like magic fleece,
Will warm me through the winters that remain.
You live inside of me, so rest in peace.*

*My love for you, dear mother, will increase
Weep, weep within me, there's release.
You live inside of me, so rest in peace.*

*Thank you for your love throughout the years.
All you and Dad have given me remains,
Not distant from the wellspring of my tears.*

*Kindnesses can never go away.
Your love has been my rock, despite the strains.*

*On all of us as separation is here.
In my heart, my love for you will always stay.*

“ *To Mag's family; it was an honor to have know this unique lady! She was full of spunk and grit, and brave enough to live life on her own terms. I will always remember her. May God bless you in the days ahead, and may your memories of Mag bring you comfort.
Sincerely.... judy*
