“ Some of my best childhood memories is, my brother and I spending time at Mary's house playing with her kiddos. We use to run wild through the creeks, play with the dogs, eat mac n cheese, and just have a great time. She would let us stay the night and I am sure we drove her crazy, but she didn't care. She loved us and wanted to spend time with us and that warms my heart. I will truly miss her. God needed another beautiful angel and he truly got himself one. My prayers are with you all and it was a blessing to be a part of her life.
