“ Terry, when I found out about Jeanie it was like a hard punch in the gut. We just had a service for Lonnie on the 22 Day of October, and now Jeanie. It just seems like it's too much to bear all at once. We all had so many good times as we grew up together. I remember Uncle Kenny would come to work the oil wells and if it wasn't a school night I would go home with him. Jeanie always wanted to play games. We would play Clue until we were so sleepy we couldn't keep our eyes open, but we had to promise Jeanie we would play again the next day before we could get her to agree to quit. That was when you lived at Martha. When you lived up the holler at Papaw & Granny Bays', me & Debbie would want to go do our own thing, but Jeanie ALWAYS wanted to tag along, and we Usually let her. I have so many Good Memories of her when we were younger, as we got older we grew apart, as so many people do. When hen we have our own families, our own lives, we just grow apart, we don't mean to, it just happens. That seems to be the way life goes. Jeanie will NEVER BE FORGOTTEN, SHE WILL ALWAYS HAVE A SPECIAL PLACE IN OUR HEARTS AND OUR MEMORIES. MAY YOU REST IN PEACE JEANIE GIRL. TERRY, I LOVE YOU FOREVER & ALWAYS

“ Well Jeanie, I was thinking of a couple of my favorite memories growing up. First, you all lived on Middle Fork up above Watson Church and I stayed all night with you. Terry taught me how to draw a truck that night while you watched a fav. Tv show. The next day Uncle Kenny killed a hog and butchered it in the stripping room. I was so carried away that we got to watch that. It was soooo cold, the fire from the ole KING O HEAT stove felt so good. So good that Nana Lee yelled I was on fire, I had burnt the words KING O HEAT backwards on the back of my brand new sears and roebuck coat. Yikes!

Then, when you all lived on Cam creek with that huge front yard and we would all get out and play soft ball and round town.

Life takes many changes in course the older we get, but doesn't change a cousins love instilled by parents that were raised as close as ours. We were so blessed to be their children.

REST IN PEACE dear sweet Jean. So glad you called a while back and we had that long talk!

LOVE, Millie!
