“ I miss my mom mina so much i remember the times when i was in the foster home that i only got to talk to her once a week on sundays and when i got home from church i would hurry to my room and change out of my church stuff so i could call my mom i miss her voice and as i got to see my mom and with my dad i miss her so much and even though i had not shed a tear in her passing that saddens me. My pastor told me in church that when people passes does not mean they are gone they are in a better place where there is no pain or sickness. Love and miss you mom i will see you again and i know you will be at the gate waiting for me in my passing.
