“ Where to even begin! O.E. Encouraged my love of horses. Starting at a young age. I will never forget watching for O.E. to make it past the house on his horses. He would always stop and let me see them. He bought me my first saddle pad and made several trips to watch me exhibit my Tennessee walking horses. He taught me as much as he could. I will never forget his advice from starting my young horses to treating the sick with home remedies. He will be forever missed in our community!
