“ I have many special memories of Ralph (and Lizza). I remember Ralph and Dad (Stanley Cox) sorting out the cows, getting them in their respective pastures and patching the fence. I remember Dad coming in late from squirrel hunting telling Mom he had run into Ralph and they had "got to talking". I remember Christmas mornings too, when each family in the area would shoot off the shotgun when their family was up. Dad would always know who's gun shot first (usually Dad or Ralph, since, I suppose, of all the kids looking for what Santa had brought in the night). Sometimes it would be Stirl Smith, Bill Harper, Kenny Whitt or others. I also remember seeing him sitting quietly in the back of Grundy Church, listening intently. I am happy to know that he will be laid to rest in the Skaggs Cemetery with his many family and loved ones. He will not be forgotten. He was a wonderful neighbor and friend to our family. I send my sincere condolences to Lizza and the rest of the family and to his many friends

“ Uncle Ralph was a wonderful man . I always loved going and spending the nights with them . He was kind to everyone and I never heard him say a bad word about anyone or raise his voice in anger . He is deeply loved and will never be forgotten . Prayers to all the family and friends .
