“ Sheila had a rough beginning in life but she had one of the brightest smiles and the best outlook on life of anyone I know. Two beautiful girls whom she dearly loved and that constant smile. Even if she was having a bad day she was laughing and asking about Krishna and her kids or when my mom was alive it was how is Mamaw? Always asking about others and never complaining about herself. Everyone should have her attitude and smile. The world will be a little smaller without her. I know Krishna will miss her too. I hope you rest in peace with no more pain.

“ There is nothing fair about this. She deserved so much more. Her children deserved more. She was a beautiful, kind, funny, goofy, and strong (especially when it came to helping others) lady who did the best she could with the hand she was dealt. Was she perfect? No, but are any of us? She had the biggest heart and I loved her. I hope she knew how many loved her. I pray for her daughters whom she loved with all her being. They were her whole world. One of her main topics when we ran in to each other. Her babies. You will be so missed sweet lady.

“ I don't have the words to express my Condolences..... I love you Sheila ~ You were without a doubt one of the truest friends I've ever had. And for that I Thank you! I'm feeling lost but I know that you are no longer suffering and that gives me peace. You fought a good fight but I guess God had other plans. I had a dream that you were in heaven with my dad and without a doubt I know that you are there with all of your loved ones and friends that had gone on before you. Rest easy now sweetheart ~ As the song says ..." My new life begins with death" Rest in peace my precious friend (Smarty pants 🤪) 💕 I love you so much 💕
