“ I remember coming down from Michigan, and one of the first places we'd come to is Uncle Tim's. I remember jumping on a trampoline they had in their yard, and just how peaceful and free it was down there. I remember his horses well, I remember how good of a person he was. How we laughed every time we came down. I came down about 5 years ago, and I made sure I stopped by and seen uncle Tim and TJ. I love you Uncle Tim, and I know you're resting peacefully. My condolences to his family. I'll keep all of you guys in my prayers during these hard times.
